Live inside a work of art in this Artist's Dream Dwelling in Taos. Welcome to ATOMICA- a home unlike any other- where art, nature and architecture meet in perfect, unconventional harmony. Designed and built by internationally acclaimed visionary artist Allan Packer, this inspiring Taos retreat is anything but ordinary. The property consists of a house, a guesthouse, and a studio on 3 acres. Organic, off beat and unconventional in the best possible way. Sculpted thick pumice walls and large windows incorporate and frame the stunning views into a magical, serene space imagined to inspire. The layout defies expectation- fluid and intuitive, built to honor light, shadow and the surrounding land. The main house consists of 2 suites radiating off a large great room made up of an impressive kitchen space and a cozy sunken living room anchored by a whimsical fireplace. Step right out onto the stunning back patio with a firepit, hot tub and jaw dropping views in every direction. The guesthouse is fully equipped with a kitchen and has an established history of rental income.

Set atop a peaceful rise, tucked near the edge of the Rio Grande del Norte National Monument, you're just minutes from breathtaking hikes where bighorn sheep roam, epic mountain biking trails, and the quiet power of the river below. The home also overlooks the 16th hole of the Taos Country Club and golf course, blending wild nature with wide-open fairways. This is not just a home-it's a living, breathing work of art. It's a space for dreamers, makers and seekers. Whether you're an artist, writer, hardcore recreationalist or someone simply craving authenticity and soul in a sea of sameness, this home offers something rare: a chance to live in art, not just hang it on the wall.

One-of-a-kind. Off the beaten path. Totally Taos. Serious inquiries only. Magic lives here.
